

Matthew B. MacFarlane

Matthew MacFarlane offers legal services to clients at Key Murray Law Offices located in Summerside, Charlottetown and Crapaud.

In all of his practice areas, Matt prides himself on providing personalized attention to his clients and their needs. He takes the most direct path to achieving the best client outcomes, offering an approachable option for legal services that are delivered in a straightforward and timely manner. Matt has appeared in all levels of court in Prince Edward Island, and practices law in multiple areas.

Before returning to PEI to practice law, Matt worked in Ottawa as an advisor in the Senate of Canada and the Department of Foreign Affairs. He is committed to giving back to the community, regularly donating his time to various community organizations, and has served on provincial, regional and national non-profit boards of directors. A passionate advocate for organ donation, Matt encourages everyone to tell their friends and family about their organ donation wishes. In February 2024, Matt was elected as the MLA for District 19, Borden-Kinkora, and represents the issues and concerns of his constituents in the Provincial Legislature.
