

Shea L. Callaghan

Shea joined Key Murray Law as an associate in our Charlottetown office after completing two summers and her articles with the firm.

Shea graduated with a Bachelor of Commerce (Major in Accounting) from Saint Mary's University in 2017 before obtaining her law degree from Dalhousie University in 2021. Shea is fluent in both French and English.

Shea has strong roots and ties to Prince Edward Island, as she was born in Summerside, PE and has family from both the Western and Eastern ends of the Island.

Shea is building a general practice, with a keen interest in business, corporate and real estate law. Shea hopes to one day serve clients from the firm's four offices in Prince Edward Island. Shea is excited to work with Islanders and is committed to meeting the needs of each client by delivering innovative, consistent, and dependable legal services.

Shea enjoys staying active and plays several sports in the community, such as being a member of senior women's soccer and volleyball leagues.
