

Stephen D. G. McKnight KC

Stephen McKnight represents Key Murray Law as counsel in Summerside and is recognised as one of the leading corporate commercial lawyers in Prince Edward Island. Initially beginning his practice in Fredericton in 1975, Stephen practiced in New Brunswick until he moved to Prince Edward Island in 1985. While in New Brunswick, in addition to his practice, he was a lecturer at the University of New Brunswick in the Faculty of Law from 1976 to 1985.

Stephen McKnight has built an exemplary reputation for his contribution to Business Law and focuses his practice on bankruptcy, insolvency, mergers, acquisitions, banking, and financial services. Through integrity and a commitment to excellence, Stephen continues to deliver professional legal services after practicing law for more than 40 years.

A Past President of the Law Society of Prince Edward Island, Stephen also serves on the Council of the Federation of Law Societies of Canada.
